PROCTORIAN

Otilia M. Brolin

Silent sunlight, welcome in.
There is work I must now begin.
All my dreams have blown away
And the children wait to play.
They'll soon remember things to do
When the heart is young
And the night is done
And the Sky is blue.

This year's sophomore class had their 2nd annual square dance. They thought of the idea last year which was a big success. This year they had another one with tremendous results. They almost quadrupled last year's earnings with a grand total of $88.

At the Winter Carnival the sophomores weren't quite as prosperous. They tied for last place with the Juniors.

The candy sale worked out very well for the 10th graders. They made $100, missing 2nd place by 1%.

In the Winter Carnival events the juniors tied for last place, and in the candy sale they were last. Now for the good news! The juniors all got together to put on a dance and have a clean-up day for the town. The queen of the Winter Carnival, Debby Lanphere, was chosen from the junior class.

NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY

"Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down today.
Nothing gold can stay."

This festival was a new experience for Proctor and proves to be another stepping stone in the progress of our music department.
